From Eidfjord to Lofthus

Duration: 3 ½ hours

From Eidfjord you drive through all the beautiful orchards along Hardangerfjord. Optional stop in Kinsarvik, with factory visit to Hardanger Cutlery Factory. 80% of all sweet cherries grown in Norway originate from the county of Ullensvang, and here are also more than 500.000 apple trees. Fruit growing was brought to Hardanger by the British monks. Sightseeing in Lofthus in the stone church built in 1250. Coffee and fresh, homemade apple cakes are served at the cozy Ullensvang Guesthouse. Return to Eidfjord.

In the morning they are leaving Bergen and drive through the coastal landscape to Hardangerfjord. Then they are heading north along the fjord through fruit farms and small villages to Norheimsund, where they have an optional visit at the Wooden Boat Preservation Center. Thereafter it is time for lunch, either at Hardangerfjord Hotel in the village of Øystese, Steinstø Farm Restaurant or Gamlastovo Farm Restaurant in Fykse.
