A plea to the hiker!

Carefully make your way through town and land,
Please do not harm the sappy bark by hand.
Don't tear the white skin off the birch trees,
And do not disturb the forest sounds with a screech.
Pick up your trash and picnic leftovers.
Clean up after yourselves and respect the nature's powers.
Don't pillage and plunder the leaves and flowers.
Do not light fires - but if you must
Extinguish the fires and turn coals into dust.
Please no drawing and scratching, non at all,
with a knife or pen on a tree or wall.
Take care of all and everything,
especially things that history sing.
